

"KEEPS HER PROMISE"

Pretty, blue-eyed Jean Donnelly, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Donnelly of 16 Colburn St., Westwood, Mass., a former patient at the Boston Children's Hospital, vowed one year ago today that when she was cured of nephrosis (a kidney disease) she would help other sick youngsters. Jeannie, who may register in the Hospital's School of Nursing class of 1963, raised $13.85 for the Children's Medical Center building fund campaign in a door-to-door drive in her neighborhood.

One year ago today a sweet-faced golden haired little girl at The Children's Hospital, solemnly vowed if and when she got well she would do her "bestest to help other sick little children."

Six-year old, blue-eyed Jean Donnelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Donnelly of 16 Colburn St., Westwood, Mass., was cured of a kidney ailment known as nephrosis and today fulfilled her promise to help other sick youngsters.

Dressed in a crisp student nurse's uniform, correct to the last detail, her blonde curls neatly tucked under the traditional square-cut cap of the Children's Hospital School of Nursing, little Jean walked into Children's Medical Center campaign headquarters at 9 Beacon street, Boston and asked to speak to the General Chairman, Frederick Ayer, Jr., of Hamilton. Prim, proper and with all the dignity of the nursing profession the tiny little girl firmly told receptionist Constance McCollum of Andover, that she wanted to discuss a "personal matter" with the general chairman. When she was told that Chairman Ayer was out of town, her lips pouted with disappointment. Recovering quickly, she asked who was second in command. She was told that Richard Preston of Hamilton, was chairman of corporations and executives division for the Children's Medical Center $11,500,000 building fund drive.

"He'll do," Jean said pertly. "May I see him now?"

With all the ceremony accorded the donor of a large gift, Jean was escorted to Preston's office. She acknowledged the introduction with a sparkling smile which turned into an infectious grin as she handed Preston a bag containing $13.85 in pennies, dimes and quarters.

Red Devils To Start Practice Sessions

The Arlington Red Devils are to begin practice next week for their fourth year in semi-pro football.

In the four years they have been one of the top teams in Massachusetts, having competed against the best-teams in the state.

Every one of their opponents have complimented them on their fine sportsmanlike play. The name of the Arlington Red Devils has spread all over Massachusetts as a clean and worthy competitor.

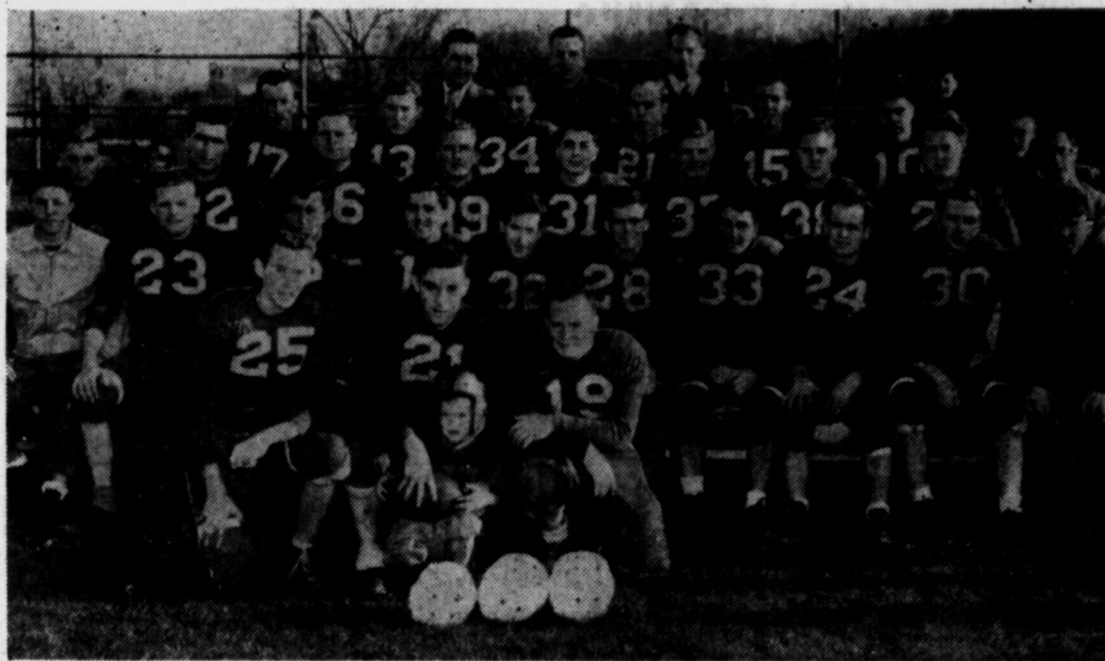

This year they are to include games at Portland, Maine and Rutland, Vermont along with teams in Western Massachusetts.

The management is arranging to have six games played at Arlington High school field this fall so that Arlington fans will be well entertained on Sunday afternoons. From the list of team they have played, the best competitors have been picked to play in Arlington so that this fall every game will be a thrilling close and hard fought battle. Because of the demand from the Belmont fans they are to play two games against the Belmont Town Team, the traditional rival of the home team. One game to be played in each town. Belmont has been the best competitor for the Devils as the past scores reveal. The Red Devils took the first game 12 to 6. Belmont won the second game in the last minute of play 6 to 0. Last year Belmont came to Arlington for their final game of the year with a perfect record of ten wins against no losses. They were upset by the Devils 7 to 6. This was considered by many as the best game seen in Arlington for quite a few years. Both teams gave the fans plenty of thrills with the Red Devil's Chick Ling breaking away for long runs against Belmont's Jack O'Donnely who gave the visiting fans high hopes for victory only to be stopped by the fast Red

"Red Devils" Await Foes

The above group of Arlington's famous Red Devils are looking forward to a rugged football season. The locals will face stiff competition, having arranged games with highly rated semi-pro teams.

PLAN MUSICAL PROGRAMS FOR RECORDED MUSIC FANS

Interest and enthusiasm for recorded music has reached such a pitch in Arlington that a group of fans met in Library Hall last Tuesday to plan a series of musical programs for neighbors of the town who would enjoy listening to the music. A variety of likes and dislikes were expressed in the lively discussion of what is to be included in the first program.

At the first meeting, held July 26, Mr. Roscoe O. Elliott speaking for the Trustees of the Robbins Library before the group, expressed his own interest in recorded concerts and the desire of the Trustees to help further musical appreciation in Arlington.

TO ENTER KAHLEEN DELL

The following students have been accepted for admission to the Kathleen Dell school, for the 1949-1950 season, academic semesters, it has been announced by the president, Mrs. Kathleen Dell: Lois Bain, 19 Burton street; Joan Diener, 43 Beverly road and Lucy Ann Yirikian, 547 Concord Turnpike, all of this town.

ARLINGTON WOMAN DIES IN WOLFEBORO

Mrs. Marion MacKay, 67, of 4 Ave., Arlington Heights, wife of Charles E. MacKay, a building contractor, passed away suddenly on Saturday at the Huggins hospital, Wolfboro, N. H.

In addition to her husband, she leaves one son, Edward A. MacKay, of Arlington Heights. Also three daughters: Mrs. James C. Shields, of Great Neck, Long Island, N.Y.; Mrs. George E. Pelletier, of Somerville, and Mrs. MacLure Douglass, of Arlington Heights and six grandchildren. Funeral services were held from the Hartwell Chapel, 792 Massachusetts Avenue, Arlington, on Tuesday afternoon, August 9, at two o'clock.

Archbishop Cushing To Lay Cornerstone Of St. James' Parochial School On Sunday

Arlington's Second Parochial School Now Near Completion

Take MTA Fare Raises In Stride

Arlingtonians met their first test of the new fare increases on the MTA on Monday in a general way with smiles and with little if any protest, although the cost to them from the Heights through the MTA to Boston is fifteen cents—five cent fare on the surface trolleys and a dime through the subway to Park Street.

Arlington seems to be in an area where the least trouble and protests against unexpected increases have developed thus far.

Some confusion of course is bound to exist and constant explanations are in order from the long-suffering and for the most part, patient operators of the surface trolleys.

While the MTA will undoubtedly have to make certain changes in the existing conditions, Arlington's public is learning how to ride, with little inconvenience, the cheapest way possible.

Bathing Beauty Contest Monday

On Monday, August 15, the Arlington Park Department will sponsor a Bathing Beauty contest involving winners from all playground preliminaries held the Friday preceding. The children in the West end will go to Robbins Farm and those in the East will go to North Union Street. The age groups are: under six; six to eight and eight to ten.

For the week August eight to twelve, Tuesday, Scavenger Hunt at Thorndike Street; Girls' Field Day at Robbins Farm (Eastern Ave.) with all the girls of the town competing; age groups are eight to ten; eleven to twelve and thirteen to fourteen. (Wednesday)

HOME FROM N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Storey and sons, Billy and Jeff, are home after enjoying a vacation spent at Milton, New Hampshire.

Realizing the fond dream of many years and the result of months of effort, thought and financial struggle, to make that dream come true, Rev. Maurice J. O'Connor, D. D., pastor of St. James' Church, Arlington Heights, will, on Sunday afternoon, August 14, before an audience of hundreds of loyal parishioners and friends, officiate at impressive ceremonies attendant upon the laying of the cornerstone of the new St. James' Parochial School, adjoining the church at Arlington Heights. The two curates of the church, Rev. Robert W. Shea and Rev. Charles McCarthy, will assist.

Archbishop Richard J. Cushing will preside as guest of honor at the simple ceremonies of laying of the cornerstone and the dedication of the structure to the service of God and youth.

Other guests present will include pastors of various Arlington churches, both Catholic and Protestant, as well as prominent laymen of all denominations. Delegations of priests from other churches of the diocese will attend and officials from the various departments will represent the Town of Arlington.

The new building embodies the latest in modern design and architecture and in its beautiful modeling and decoration, conforms to the specifications of some of the finest architects and interior designers of the country. The exterior structure of the school, which is of yellow brick, is rapidly nearing completion.

The school will be a dignified and beautiful addition to Arlington's public buildings and will be the second parochial school in the town, the other being St. Agnes' Parochial school at Arlington Centre.

Arlington Veteran Dies Of Heart Attack

David W. Dempster, 33, of 149 Franklin Street, Arlington, marine corps veteran of World War Two, died suddenly of a heart attack on Saturday, August 6, at the Veterans Hospital in West Roxbury.

In addition to his wife, Mrs. Kathryn (Hodge) Dempster, he leaves two children, Pamela and David, at home; his father, James Dempster, of Arlington; a brother, George Dempster, of this town and also three sisters. They are Mae and Gladys Dempster, of Arlington and Mrs. Margaret Stacey, of Welington, Ohio.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon, August 9, at two o'clock, in the First Parish Unitarian church, Arlington. Burial was in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

Notice To World War Two Veterans

Richard D. Noy, Commander of Arlington Post No. 39, American Legion, announces that application forms for special dividends on National Service Life Insurance Policies, will be available on and after August 29th, at the Post Headquarters of the Arlington Post No. 39, American Legion, at 370 Massachusetts Avenue, Arlington. Members of the Post will be on hand and will be ready and glad to assist all veterans in the completion of the necessary forms.

REV. PEDERSEN AT UNION SERVICES

Rev. Charles E. Pedersen, minister of the Calvary church, corner of Massachusetts avenue and Linwood street, Arlington, addressed the members of the First Parish Unitarian, the First Universalist and the Pleasant Street Congregational churches on Sunday, at the 10:45 union services held at his church. He took as his subject "How Can We Get Most Out Of Life?"

FIRST POLIO CASE REPORTED THIS SEASON

Joseph E. Krepelka, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Krepelka, of 79 Appleton street, Arlington, is the first case of infantile paralysis reported in the town this season. He was stricken with the dread disease on Friday July 15, and was removed to the Haynes Memorial hospital in Brighton.

Krepelka is a well known local baseball player, being a leading player on the Holy Name Society team which was formerly known as the Arlington D. A. V. nine.

He is a veteran of World War II and passed his 23rd birthday last Saturday. His father is a well-known member of the Arlington Auxiliary Police Association.

CANCER DRIVE NETS SUM OF $1710.04

According to the report recently released by Mrs. M. Norcross Stratton, chairman of the Arlington Campaign for funds for research work of the American Cancer Society, the local campaign netted a total of $1710.94, from approximately 232 donors and twelve local organizations. $95.54 was received from the local coin boxes placed here and there in stores and banks throughout the town, by Mrs. John Bishop, a member of the committee. The sum is slightly less than that collected last year.

Contributions may still be sent to Mr. Walter Chamberlain, treasurer, at the Arlington Cooperative Bank, or to the American Cancer Committee, 462 Boylston Street, Boston.

In addition to its work of raising funds, the Arlington group has centered its efforts in the dissemination of information as to what is being done to ascertain the cause and promote the cure of this dread disease.

Eight And Forty Club Enjoy Outing At Scituate

On Sunday afternoon, July 17, twenty partners of the Middlesex Salon No. 161, Eight and Forty, met at the beautiful summer home of Partner Margaret Hillery, at Scituate, Mass.

Petite Chapeau Bertha Connor, of Arlington, presided at the business meeting, following which a picnic lunch was served on the large verandas, despite the inclement weather.

While the business session was carried on, the husbands of the partners were entertained by a ball game on the television set.

Partners of the Eight and Forty have volunteered to aid the Middlesex Voiture 41, at Wakefield on Sunday, August 14, when approximately five hundred children will compete in a Model Boat contest. Cookies, cakes and ice cream will be served during the afternoon, as well as a substantial breakfast to the men in charge of the affair.

It was voted to dispense with the August meeting. The next meeting will be held in Cambridge Legion Headquarters, on Monday evening, September 26, at which time the annual birthday supper will be served, with Demi Chapeau Premier Marie Williams, of Cambridge, in charge.

Local Businessmen To Sponsor Outing Aug. 17

Under arrangement with the Arlington Park Department, local businessmen are sponsoring a trip for approximately 900 children with their adult escorts, on a cruise to Plymouth, Mass., aboard the excursion vessel, the Boston Belle, on Wednesday, August 17th.

The excursion will be free to the children and all arrangements are now being worked out under the direction of Bob Longpre, of the Arrow Motors Inc., who is in charge of financial details incident to the trip and the Arlington Park Department. The trip is being made possible by the generosity of the various Arlington business firms.

Playground Briefs

The Playground Circus at North Union Street was a huge success and all the children enjoyed the acts, games and displays. The parade was one of the high-lights of the afternoon with the Circus Band leading in bright costumes. The booth point system worked out well under the direction of John Lax and on Monday morning the Park Department, after carefully checking the score cards handed in, was able to announce the following winners:

In the 8-10 group: Richard Cahaley of Crosby-a game from Playtime.

In the 11-12 group: Dorine Picone of Thorndike Street-an album of records from Farringtons.

In the 13-14 group: Swiftly Carroll of Wellington-a portable radio from Averys.

Another highlight of the afternoon was the Watermelon Eating Contest. Twelve youngsters dove into halved watermelons and ate for four minutes. At the end of the session the following two boys were the winners: Joe Femia of Waldo Road, who was very proud of the bat he received and Swiftly Carroll, again, who received a new base ball.

Many attractive arts and crafts tables were entered in that contest Friday and the winning playgrounds, who received some good Bushway ice cream, were Robbins Farm and Thorndike street. For their clever floats Linwood Street and Florence Avenue were awarded 50 boxes of cracker jack to distribute among those who were active in Circus plans.

A feature of the Circus was a Wild West Show put on by the gang from Thorndike Street. Joe Bellino who drives a Pony Boy Ice Cream Wagon, drove his pony cart decorated as the "Death Valley Express" into the ring to be captured by the Indians. Kenny Dempsey and Joe O'Shea were great as Indian Chiefs and their war-whoops really frightened Edna Paragona who was the pretty stage coach passenger. Edna, by the way, was also the one who drew a beautiful watercolor poster of the kids from Thorndike Street swimming in a dream pool at their playground.

A trip is scheduled for Tuesday, August 11, to the Children's Museum. The subject for the day will be, "Indians of the Plains" and the program includes a movie, a tour of the museum stressing the topic of the week and then games and crafts for the younger ones. Buses will leave for home at 3:30. Be sure the children check with their playleader for all the details.

Remember the date August 19, for on that Friday afternoon the Park Department is holding a local swim meet. Medals have been donated by our local Kiwanis and Touchdown Clubs.

PLAN NATIONAL STAMP COLLECTORS EXHIBIT IN BOSTON FROM AUG. 16-20

Enthusiastic stamp collectors from all parts of the country and several foreign countries will gather in Boston from August 16-20 to attend the 63rd Annual Convention and Exhibit of American Philatelic Society.

The meeting this year will be held in Horticultural Hall under the leadership of Dr. Howard K. Thompson, prominent Boston physician. Governor Dever will officiate at the opening ceremony and Mayor Curley and Postmaster Crowley will officiate on subsequent days.

Philatelists, or stamp collectors, as they are generally called, will have an opportunity to see many postage stamp rarities at this year's exhibit. Theodore Steinway, head of the great piano making concern which bears his name, will exhibit his famous collection of Great Britain Penny Blacks. Some of the many other notable exhibits include the Peplon collection of Japan, pages from the Luff Reference and the Israel collection of Cuba and 36 pages from the collection of Cardinal Spellman, submitted by Regis College in Weston.

Another great attraction for visiting stamp collectors from other parts of the country will be the opportunity to view objects and places in and near Boston which have inspired the illustrations on many United States postage stamps. Among the most interesting of these are the Gilbert Stuart portraits of George and Martha Washington in the Boston Museum of Fine Arts which appear on several postage stamp issues. "Old Ironsides", in Charlestown Navy Yard, also appears on a postage stamp, as does Daniel Chester French's Minute Man in Concord. Other stamps portray celebrated Americans whose homes were in or near Boston. Among the latter are:—Ralph Waldo Emerson, James Russell Lowell, Charles W. Eliot, John Adams, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow and John Quincy Adams.

The American Philatelic Society, sponsor of the exhibit, lays claim to being the oldest and largest hobby society in the world. It was founded in 1886 to promote the hobby of stamp collecting. Present membership is more than 11,000. Among the society's members are many persons who have achieved distinction in many walks of life. Perhaps the most celebrated of its members was postage stamp enthusiast, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

CALEDONIAN CLUB OUTING AUG. 15

Many Winchesters of Scottish descent and friends, are planning to attend the Boston Caledonian Clubs 96th annual Highland games and track meet, one of the nation's oldest and most colorful folk events, to be held Saturday, August 13, at Russell Field Stadium, North Cambridge.

In addition to the sporting events there will be the traditional Highland events, including competition in the sword dance, Highland fling, bagpipes and best costumes. All of the events are open to women, men and children, the latter in age-groups. There will be 18 such events.

Music will be provided by many bands including the famous Boston Caledonian Club's pipe band, under the direction of Hector MacDonald, pipe major. At the conclusion of the pipe-band contest, there will be a massed band parade. The general program will begin at 1 p.m. The sports events will include a three-mile run, a weight throwing contest, tossing the caber, hammer throwing and various running races, including the featured Walter Scott mile.

George B. Smith of Jamaica Plain, chief of the club and former pipe major, heads the general committee. John Speirs of 355 Newbury street, Boston, is secretary of the games. Robert Bowie will be ringmaster, assisted by William H. McVicar.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Springer entertained a few members of the latter's family, last week in honor of her birthday. Guests included Mrs. Doris Yule, of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tate and Miss Mabel Marble, of Pine Ridge Rd.

Recreation Service Offers Game Kits For Use Of Outings Etc.

The Community Recreation Service of Boston, at 739 Boylston Street, Boston, a Red Feather service, has just announced a picnic kit service which makes available to employees' associations and other organized clubs and groups, complete game equipment for outings or picnics, without the worry of buying or borrowing all the various articles of equipment that might be needed.

Everything for a day full of fun and recreation is available in such a kit, neatly packed in a sturdy portable chest. The outing leader simply calls for the kit, makes a deposit guaranteeing its safe return the day following the event, and on its return receives the deposit back with a very small rental charge deducted.

The chest contains such articles as softball and bats, football, volleyball, play balls, badminton, paddle tennis sets, horseshoe sets, nets etc., and even a rolling pin for that good old American picnic contest for the ladies—the rolling pin throwing contest.

A call to KENmore 6-3324 will reserve a kit for your use.

"Learn To Swim Safely" Says Red Cross Expert

"Learn to swim," advises Alex Houston, director of the Water Safety Service of Red Cross, "and learn to swim safely."

There are many who learn to swim without instruction and as a rule, self-taught swimmers swim very poorly indeed. Without the understanding of certain fundamental principles of swimming certain patterns of swimming movements are set up by the would-be swimmer, which prove to be crude, exhausting and far from efficient, claims the Water Safety Director.

"There are simple principles of swimming, which, when thoroughly understood, will save the extravagant output of energy wasted by unnecessary action," he said.

In Red Cross Learn To Swim classes, swimming is taught step by step. Each step is thoroughly taught, each skill being mastered before proceeding to the next one. Only this way can an individual learn to swim soundly and efficiently.

Retired Arlington Man Enjoys Unusual Hobby

William B. Fleming, of 306 Appleton Street, Arlington, enjoys an unusual hobby which not only brings him many hours of relaxation but also has earned him considerable amounts of spending money.

Seeing an advertisement for sea shells, offered in gallon lots by a firm in Florida, Mr. Fleming, a retired carpenter and maintenance man, wrote the company and received shells of various sizes and shapes in return. He began to make jewelry and other articles.

"During the first six months, I turned out the most terrible looking stuff you ever saw, but I kept working at them after work hours and pretty soon I was making some rather good looking articles," he says.

"I made earrings and brooches and as there was a decided shortage of metal jewelry during the war, a couple of gift shops ordered my jewelry and sold it. When the war ended and metal jewelry came back there was no demand for my articles."

"So I stopped making commercial jewelry and started dabbling around for myself. I ordered dif-

RETURN FROM N. H. VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Havenue, of 48 Kilsyth road, with their children, Mark and Marjorie, have returned from a vacation spent at Pine Grove cottages, at Bristol, N. H. Miss Marjorie Gardner, of Massachusetts Avenue, Arlington, has been one of the group.

VACATIONING IN BERMUDA

Miss Elizabeth C. Robbins, 40 Harlow street, Arlington, Miss Jean MacInnes, 28 Clayton avenue, Medford and Mrs. Evelyn Handysell, of Cambridge, and Alberquerque, New Mexico, left Boston via Pan American Clipper on Wednesday, July 28th, en route to Bermuda, where they will be guests at the Elbow Beach Surf Club. They were planning to return via Pan American's new double decker strato-cruiser to Idlewild airport, New York.

One Hand Drivers To Be Prosecuted By Registrar King

Enforcement officers of the Registry of Motor Vehicles were today instructed to stop motor vehicle operators who insist on driving over the highways of the Commonwealth with but one hand on the wheel.

"Many serious accidents to other motorists, pedestrians and offending drivers as well have been the direct result of this unsafe driving habit. Therefore, I have issued instructions to all Registry Inspectors to report violators to me for disciplinary action," stated Rudolph F. King, Massachusetts Registrar of Motor Vehicles.

"Highway safety demands full time application and attention to driving and this requires the use of both hands, unless the operator is specially licensed because of an infirmity."

Observations and justifiable complaints indicate a rapid growth of this hazardous practice which must immediately be eliminated. There is no room on our crowded highways for show offs."

1. The tires that perform with more air and less air pressure.
2. The only tires of low air pressure with especially designed tread for easier steering.
3. The tires that absorb the road they travel on.
4. The tires that fully cushion every shock and road strain.
5. The tires that radically influenced modern automotive engineering.
6. The tires that have been copied and imitated but neither equalled or duplicated.
7. The tires without any excess rubber—run cooler and, therefore, wear much longer.
8. The tires that make old cars feel like new.
9. The tires that outsell because they deserve to outsell.
10. The tires that pay for themselves in pleasure, protection and long wear.
